

Faith Corner

by Sharee Fish Norton

A Teachable Spirit

"Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." — Matthew 18:3

♥ Why does Jesus tell grown-ups to become like children?

Because children can have hearts that are ready to believe, ready to learn, and ready to trust. When you hear about Jesus, you can believe with a pure and open heart.

♥ Jesus does not want us to think we are better than others or that we always know best.

He wants us to have a teachable spirit—a heart that listens, learns, and is willing to follow Him.

♥ Be willing to listen when God teaches you.

Listen to your parents, teachers, and those who lovingly guide you. Ask questions, learn from your mistakes, and let God help your heart grow.

♥ My dear readers—believe with the honesty and wonder of a child.

Trust God. Follow His plan for your life, and let Him lead you toward a life filled with faith, love, and joy.

♥ May your heart always be light, your faith always be strong, and your kindness always point others to Jesus.

Blessings

♥ A Prayer for a Teachable Heart

Dear God,
Thank You for teaching me every day.
Help me listen with an open heart,
learn from Your Word, and follow Your ways.
Help me be humble enough to learn,
brave enough to ask questions, and loving enough to share what I learn with others.
Amen.

Let your heart be open to God's teaching!
Matthew 18:3